

NATE COOPER SENIOR MINISTER

Everyday you live, give life.

Nate Cooper was born and raised in Summersville, MO. Cooper is a graduate of Johnson University with a degree in Ministry Leadership and Bible Theology. He has attended secular college where he received his start in ministry through Christian Campus House.

Cooper started as the first campus director for West Plains Christian Campus House College Ministry in 2007. He partnered with CCH in Springfield on several short-term mission trips to Zambia-Africa, Mexico, New Orleans, Virginia, Nashville, Arizona, and St. Louis. While doing college ministry, Cooper was bivocational and served as youth minister and a radio personality. In 2015, he returned back to Summersville to serve as the Associate Minister under the leadership of Paul Hamm and the Elders. In 2016, Cooper became the Senior Minister.

Nate is married to Heather. Heather serves as Lead Worshipper. She is the Elementary Music teacher and PAT Coordinator for Summersville R-2. The Coopers have been very active in the community of Summersville. The Coopers have three boys Malachi, Micah and Maddox.

Be Disciples. Build Disciples.